VOLUME XXI—No. 146. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 24, 1920. TWO CENTS

HOGAN ON TRIAL FOR THE FINLEYVILLE BANK ROBBERY

Alleged to Have Confessed His Part to Fellow Prisoner in Jail

IS IDENTIFIED BY WITNESSES

Evidence which it is believed will lead to the arrest of the seven bandits who on May 24, 1920, robbed the First National Bank of Finleyville of $188,000, was given in criminal court at Washington on Tuesday in the trial of Jack Hogan of Pittsburg; alleged member of the gang.

Hogan was identified as the driver of the bandit car by Martin Viostil, who resides in the McMurray district of this county. Herman C. Varndell, of Clarksburg, W. Va., in jail at Washington on a charge of larceny, testified that Hogan had confessed to him that he participated in the raid on the bank.

Cashier Joseph F. Boyer of the bank testified that the loot totaled $188.906.75 consisting of $15.328.34 in cash. $29,100 in Liberty bonds, $124,478.41 in stocks and bonds of various kinds and $20,000 in British war loan notes.

According to Varndell's story, Hogan told him he owned the machine he drove on the day of the robbery, although it was under his sister's name, and there were six others in the car with him. The hold-up was planned, Hogan is reported to have said by "Jew" Davis of Toledo, Ohio, believed to be one of the two brothers arrested in Detroit while trying to dispose of $37,000 worth of the bond and securities stolen from the Finleyville bank.

As the bandits drove into Finleyville, according to Varndell, Hogan remained in the machine while the six left in two groups three each, the groups approaching the bank from separate directions. Hogan drove up to the bank, while the six men, after looting the institution, jumped into the machine and sped west, then circling to the northward into Peters township and the McMurray district, Hogan is alleged to have said. In the wild dash a hog was killed and the car careened into a culvert, one wheel being broken.

Martin Voistel, who identified Hogan as the driver, helped to get the car out of the ditch. The auto was so badly damaged in the mishap that another had to be ordered from Pittsburg. Voistel also identified the damaged car.

Hogan was arrested at Elco, in this county. He was also believed to have been on the shanty boat at Glassport when it was raided May 29, last, but he escaped.

The case was still on trial today, but an effort will be made to finish it before evening. If necessary a night session will be held. Other witnesses testified at the trial, and have made a strong case against the accused, but he will endeavor to establish an alibi.

The Davis mentioned in the testimony together with his brother, were arrested in Detroit and are now out under bail. The bonds they endeavored to sell were recovered by the bank, but there remains quite a number of other securities to be returned.

Varndell in his testimony, said that Hogan admitted he had hidden his share of the loot in the Laurel Hill mountains, but did not disclose the location.

MINE FIRE AT FAYETTE CITY UNDER CONTROL

It is believed that the fire in the Fayette mine of the Lowber Gas Coal company, back of Fayette City is now under control, all of the entries leading to the endangered area having been closed. These passages will remain closed for a period of at least two weeks and possibly a month, when they will be carefully opened to determine the status of the situation. About five acres of the workings of the mine are in the danger zone, but it is believed the method adopted will result in the fire being conquered.

GUARDS PLACED ON SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Deeming precaution advisable, the school board of Charleroi on Tuesday afternoon arranged to have guards placed at all of the local school buildings who will be on duty at nights until further notice. The board took this action because of the numerous fires which have destroyed so many school buildings in this immediate section of the valley. While it might be impossible to completely destroy any of the local buildings with fire, at the same time a great deal of damage could be done by an incendiary, and the members of the board thought it best to take every precaution against possible damages to any of the structures. This is a step that will be endorsed by the people of the community. The guards went on duty last night, and were prepared for all emergencies.

TEACHERS' INSTITUE IN FALLOWFIELD TOWNSHIP

The teachers of Fallowfield township will hold an institute in the Curtin school house on Friday evening, November 26. The speakers will be Charles E. Williams, president of the school board; County Superintendent L. R. Crumrine and J. M. Veazey, supervisor of vocational agriculture. All the teachers of the township will take part and the pupils of the school will furnish the music.

SPECIAL CAR FOR GAME AT DONORA

Tomorrow the annual Turkey Day clash between the Charleroi High School football team and that of the Donora High School will take place at Donora. The kick-off will take place at ten o'clock, sharp. The Donora players have looked forward to this game practically all season and have left nothing undone in their preparations. The local boys are in prime condition for the fray, and are confident of their ability to duplicate their feat against Monongahela last Saturday. Tomorrow's game is of extreme importance to Charleroi, because the result will determine the team's eligibility for football honors in Washington County. Should Donora be defeated, the locals will again have to play Washington, as that organization has not yet been defeated by a county team. A monster crowd is expected to turn out for the game and both teams may be relied upon to put forth their best efforts. A special street car will leave Fifth street tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock for the ball park at Donora, and will make the return trip immediately after the game.

SENDING GOOD CHEER FOR THANKSGIVING

According to an annual custom, the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church is sending out baskets loaded with good things for Thanksgiving Day. Each year the committee endeavors to remember those who have had sickness and to all such the basket is in reality good cheer. The Ladies' Aid Society is packing a box to be sent to Miss Bernice Clutter a missionary from the church who is in North Carolina. Miss Clutter will distribute the gifts among her scholars and the mountain children for miles around will gather for the distribution.

CHAMPS ARE SCALPED BY RUSSELL'S WAHOOS

Capt. Russell's Wahoos were on the war path last night and as a consequence the Champs led by Capt. Billy Kuhn were not only captured, but scalped into the bargain in two games out of three at the Elks' bowling alleys last night. The Wahoos took the first game by a margin of 63 pins, and the second by 17 pins, when the Champs finally made a stand and by some fine bowling took the final contest by 54 pins. Capt. Russell, Kimmins, Bill Phillips and Chief Jordan all rolled fine games for the Wahoos, while Capt. Kuhn and "Dead Center" Miller performed well for the Champs. Tonight Capt. Verron's Devil Dogs play Capt. Carson's Trimmers. Game called at 9:45, after Lodge. Special—Members are asked not to forget the special turkey dinner, which will be held at the club on Thanksgiving Day from 12 o'clock noon until 8:30 p. m.

WILL HOLD SCHOOL IN CHURCH BASEMENT

At a meeting of the school board of Speers borough and a committee from the Speers Methodist church, which met a few days ago, arrangements were made by the school district for the use of the basement of the church for school purposes. It is proposed to fit up the basement for the purpose desired, arrangements being made for two rooms, which will be properly equipped. If the necessary arrangements can be made the schools will open in their new locations on Monday next.

So far no traces have been discovered which would lead to the apprehension of the one responsible for the fire which destroyed the school building. While all are of the opinion that it was incendiary origin, the perpetrator of the deed has covered his tracks so well that his apprehension is a matter of doubt. In this connection the school board of the district as well as the citizens wish to acknowledge their appreciation for the prompt response on the part of the Belle Vernon fire department when called upon for aid.

NEVER AGAIN

The other day a Colonial-English woman from Durban, Natal, South Africa was scandalized at sight of a refined American girl mopping up the floor and exclaimed: "That is no work for a white woman!" About the same time a gently-reared American woman, who for some time past has done virtually all her housework and who was about to begin the long journey to join her husband in South Africa, remarked that she was leaving much that she prized but that therewould be compensation in plenty of cheap help. And now comes the story from South Carolina that men in the old Ku Klux disguise have been riding about warning the negroes that they must go towork. Like all good fiction. this ends happily with the announcement thatscared negroes and negresses are flocking into the white man's cotton fields and kitchens. At present prices they canafford to work only about one-fourth of the time, but the warnings of the fearsome Ku Klux in "graveyard tones" —whatever that may be—have inclined them toward industry of a more steady sort.

This story. like many of the other tales coming out of the South, puts too severe a strain upon the credulity of the reflecting observer. Imaginative makers of newspaper "copy" journeying through that section too often build upon a flimsy foundation or on foundation at all except perhaps one about fifty years old. Men threatening to try the Ku Klux method might be willing to take the risk of "driving" negroes to the cotton fields. but they would hardly undertake to force a resentful negress to become a cook, fearing unpleasant consequencecs in the form of poison in the coffee or the pie. Nobody expects such methods to solve the labor and servant problems in South Carolina or anywhere else. and in no part of the country will the easy arrangements known to our grandfather or even our fathers ever be witnesses again. The man or woman who wants plenty of cheap labor or plenty of cheap household help will have to go to South Africa or some other remote region where there are relatively few whites and millions of dark natives just stepping out of barbarism.

DOWN WITH THE GALLANTRIES

Great changes in the present relations between men and women are to come, if the feminists have their way according to a Washington dispatch referring to the bill of rights to be drafted by the national convention of women voters which Alice Paul, head of the National Women's Party, announces for February next in the Federal capital. Not only will this convention repudiate the "branding" of women with their husbands' surnames but will seek to abolish all the "so-called gallantries." The "combined feminist voice" will be raised against "this stuff taught the innocent girl that when a man doffs his hat to her, rises in her presence, etc., he is expressing innate respect for noble womanhood." Pooh! "Only the harem women wants men to commit these so-called gallantries" says Margaret Hatfield, who refuses to become an "erased identity" by bearing her husband's surname of Chase. Of the foolish gallantries this fully emancipated woman voter says further: "The tired business man finds them a nuisance. So does the self-respecting woman. They are regarded as special privileges granted women. How can a woman who demands full equality consistently accept them?"

This view may accurately represent Miss Alice Paul, Margaret Hatfield (who repudiates even the prefix "Miss" because she says it means "womanlet" and she is no such thing) and some of the other leading spirits, but it is pretty safe to conclude that the average new voter wants to keep the "gallantries" and woman's other spcial privileges along with her ballot. As for the woman who are indifferent or oppoesd to the ballot, it is quite probable that no few of them will continue to consent to be "branded" with their husband's surnames and even to wear that relic of barbarism, the wedding ring. At any rate, we shall see.

OXFORD'S OLIVE BRANCH

There is an assumption in university circles that scholarship and science not only should but do belong to a high and pure aura above the level of national partisanship. Doubtless this in part accounts for the fact that 57 Oxford professors and doctors have proposed to the scholars and scientists of the German universities that the time has come to forget the animosities of war and to resume friendly co-operation in the noble pursuit of the search for truth and the advancement of knowledge for the benefit of the world. The motive of these British men of learning is, of course, admirable, but they seem to have forgotten that it was the German scholars themselves who repudiated and kicked out the pleasing theory that men who breathe the pure aura of learning and science can stand solely for the truth and ignore national lines.

It is still remembered that late in 1914 all the German professors of any prominence, 97 in number, signed a document enthusiastically commending the German government for starting a great war of aggression, vehemently denying that anything done by German soldiers in Belgium or elsewhere was wrong, and expressing the utmost detestation of all learned foreigners who were stupid enough not to recognize the righteousness of Germany's cause. Thus they put themselves on a level with the narrowest and even the most vindictive of partisans, utterly destroying so far as they were concerned the pleasing theory mentioned above. Such men, still unrepentant, are likely to regard Oxford's olive branch as aconfessi on of inferiority.

Hammel president and treasurer of the Pittsburg Navigation company, operating the steamer LeRoy, between Pittsburg and Morgantown, has issued a circular letter to shippers that on account of the conditions of the weather and the inability to secure wharfboats along the Monongahela river, they have decided to temporarily discontinue the service for passengers and freight until such a time as arrangements can be made to take care of the shipments.

Try MEDICATED VAPORS

For Colds and Coughs that are Deep-seated and Hard to get rid of

The deep-seated cold or cough means that the inflammation has penetrated dangerously far down into the lungs where ordinary treatments are ineffective.

Medicinal vapors should be inhaled nightly to supplement the external treatment. Before retiring, apply Krew-Pina in the nostrils and rub it well over the chest and throat. Then, getting into bed, draw the bed clothes up over the nose so as to form a funnel between the chest and nostrils, and inhale the medicinal vapors the heat of the body causes Krew-Pina to give off. Renew these treatments until the inflammation has been expelled.

Keep a jar of Krew-Pina in the house. It is an ointment composed entirely of simple remedies such as Oil of Pine and other powerful volatile oils—absolutely harmless. At the same time, it is a scientifically compounded, powerful agent for the relief of many household sicknesses and hurts including bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, sores, foot trouble, lame back, neuralgia, bruises and stone bruises, burns, cuts, etc. 30c and 60c jars—at your druggist's.

ENTERTAINED FOR RECENT BRIDES

Mrs. Wesley Peters entertained the members of the Isabella Thoburn class of the M. E. Church—at her home on Fallowfield Avenue, Tuesday evening, in the form of a shower for two recent brides of the class, Mrs. Ruth Gebbert Reeves and Mrs. Elizabeth Hall Van Dolson. The earlier part of the evening was spent in a sociable time, fancy work being the main diversion. Later the two brides were each given small pieces of ribbon to wind, at the end of which many pleasant surprises were in store for them, being small but useful gifts. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her sisters, Misses Esther and Dorothy Hall.

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"

Everybody knows that "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" is the best picture Mary Pickford ever made.

But there weren't so many theatres or so many theatregoers when it was released.

Those who saw it then, want to see it again. Those who never saw it, want to see it now.

WE GIVE THANKS

It is good for us all to give one day each year to honest recognition of the things we have to be thankful for.

This November we, as a Nation, again give thanks in memory of the Armistice that brought us peace.

And we appreciate more keenly than ever the privilege that is given us all as Americans, a voice in selecting those who guide our national affairs.

This Institution is thankful for the friends it has made, for its many opportunities of serving them, and for the vision of greater opportunites ahead.

In keeping with the spirit of the day we shall be closed for Thanksgiving, November 25th.

Do Your Children Go to Church?

Your father and grandfather believed in religion and prayer. The Bible went westward with rifles and axes in prairie schooners. But will the next generation try to get along without religion? Even today we are not a church-going nation. Only one in every three of the 1,600,000,000 human beings on this earth are nominal worshippers of the God of the Jews and Gentiles.

A century or half a century from now will the United States be classed among the nations that believe in God?
